REBEKAHS.

One of their best meetings of the year is promised for Hope lodge, No. 21, in Odd Fellows' hall next Wednesday evening, when the state president and the state vice president are to make the lodge a visit, and Hope lodge of Western will also be here by invitation. There are two candidates for the degree to be worked in full form. The Western delegation is expected to have a special car, so that they can return at late hour after the banquet which follows the business meeting.

HIBERNIANS.

Division No. 1 celebrates its 38th anniversary Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock in Hibernian hall, expecting to have present State Vice President T. May of New London, County President James C. Sullivan and other members of the New London division, Rev. W. A. Keefe and Dr. P. H. Harriman, and also the officers of Division No. 2 and the Tatfville division.

At the last meeting of the division President Michael J. Dwyer presided. One application was received and one member initiated. County President Sullivan from New London was a visitor, speaking interestingly of the fine efforts put forth by Division No. 1 in increasing its membership largely, and expressing the hope that the good work would continue. Among other speakers were Thomas F. Moriarty and other members of the division. C. Barry, M. J. Malone and Michael J. Dwyer were appointed a committee to arrange for a dance in the near future.

Division No. 2, with President Frank J. Murphy in the chair, held its regular meeting last Tuesday evening in Hibernian hall. After the business meeting the degree team drilled and will have another drill on Sunday afternoon. After that it will be ready to fill an engagement at Tatfville, and arrangements will be made with the Tatfville division to have their class not in readiness for the coming of the degree team.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS.
Whist by the Neosha Club of Sedgewick council, No. 34, filled Foresters' hall on Monday evening with a merry crowd of enthusiasts at the game, and a pleasant evening was spent. There were fourteen tables playing, and at the close the following prize winners were announced: First—Miss Lydia A. Smith, 47, a 10c shirt; Rufus D. Harris, 45, sleeve links and scarfpin. Second—Miss Bowen, 41, half dozen fancy tumblers; Mrs. Margaret Hart, 39, consolation prize—Vinnie Club; and Elmer Kline.

Cake and coffee were served. Another whist and board game supper by club to be given on the 19th at the home of Mrs. Grace Thompson on Broad street, and one in the hall on the 22d. At the next regular meeting of the council the nomination of officers for the next term will be made.

ODD FELLOWS.

Uncas lodge, No. 11, met in Odd Fellows' hall on Monday evening. Only the usual routine business was conducted.

Shelton lodge, No. 27, meeting in Odd Fellows' hall on Tuesday evening, voted favorably upon two names and have work to do at their time at the meetings next month.

Palmyra encampment, No. 2, met in stated form Thursday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. At the next meeting comes on Thanksgiving, it was decided to omit that session.

Canton Oneco, No. 4, under command of Major Frank J. King, Captain Otto Ernst, Sergeant Frank L. Tuttle and Ensign Herbert Willey, started for Middletown Friday morning by the 5.40 trolley from Franklin square, to be present with the other cantons of the state at the festive celebration, with the installation of Wolseyan university's new president. About 15 of the Norwich members made the trip, participating in the parade, having a delightful time, and returning here by a late trolley Friday evening via Willimantic.

L'UNION ST. JEAN BAPTISTE D'AMERIQUE.

Lafayette council, No. 367, met in regular form Thursday evening in Foresters' hall, having a good evening, but no special business to consider. The first nomination of officers was made for election at the succeeding meeting. This will be the first meeting in having applications for membership since it falls on the evening of Thanksgiving.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

Both the Royal Arcanum councils enjoyed a pleasing experience this week in the Buckingham Memorial hall, having a large number of new members. The first nomination of officers was made for election at the succeeding meeting. This will be the first meeting in having applications for membership since it falls on the evening of Thanksgiving.

tion which the post had given them some time ago. The entertainment began with a dinner served at 12.15 o'clock, at which were sixty to seventy guests. The evening was enjoyed by the executive committee, who are Mrs. Lydia F. Perkins, chairman, Mrs. Lillian E. Brewster, Mrs. Marietta Wright, Mrs. Susan Kamp, Mrs. Laura J. Hutchins, Mrs. Almida Fields, Mrs. Gertrude Root, Mrs. Mary E. Brewster, Mrs. Harriet L. Kinney, Mrs. Marie Disque.

On the menu were soup, chicken pie and all the usual accompaniments, with lemon meringue for dessert. The waitresses who looked well after the wants of the diners included Mrs. Annie L. Rawson, Mrs. Esther H. Blinn, Mrs. Lillian E. Brewster, Mrs. Nellie E. Bailey, Mrs. Harriet L. Kinney, Mrs. Margaret Dean, Mrs. Maud Baker, Mrs. Emma B. Wheeler, Miss Olive Carpenter, Miss Annie Tieswell.

The regular corps meeting opened at 2.30 o'clock, when the president, Mrs. Emma E. Covey, greeted the following department officers: Department president, Alice A. Slater, Hartford; junior vice president, Mary E. Smith, New Haven; secretary, Carrie M. Roberts, Hartford; treasurer, Mary L. Hayes, Pine Meadow; counselor, Isaac M. Glavin, Middletown; I and I officer, Bertha Lounsbury, Branford; patriotic instructor, Minna Oldershaw, New Britain; press correspondent, Emma S. Young, Middletown; and Emma L. Wood of New Haven, a member of the executive board.

Other visitors present were Mrs. Evelyn Payne of Westerly, president of the Pawcatuck corps; Miss Lillian Lamb, president of the New London corps; Mrs. Anna M. Bliven of New London and Mrs. Ida B. Stanhope of New Haven, who is a member of Sedgewick corps. The meeting had a large attendance of the local members, including a good proportion of the charter members and the past presidents. Only routine business was transacted, but the visitors all spoke. Department President Mrs. Slater found much to praise in the floor work of the Sedgewick women. A much enjoyed afternoon was spent, and the visitors expressed themselves as highly pleased with the way they had been entertained.

SONS OF VETERANS.

On Friday evening Jared R. Avery camp of New London broke all local records for a class session by taking in from 59 to 60 recruits. A delegation from Sedgewick camp of Norwich attended the big evening of the New London brothers.

Division Commander Charles R. Roberts of Hartford was present, accompanied by Judge Earl M. Grant, Robert T. Alcorn, Charles R. Hale of Hartford and P. H. McGar of Meriden.

Mr. Hale is the division organizer and it is due to his efforts that a large class was secured. He organized the Mystic camp which was instituted on Tuesday, and has been successful in instituting nine camps in the state in the last six months.

LADIES' CATHOLIC BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.

A whist evening in Hibernian hall Friday night by St. Rose branch, No. 1078, was successfully conducted and made a delightful social affair for the good number attending. They were all pleased to hear that there was to be another in December. The successful contestants who bore off the prizes were as follows: First—Miss Esther Collins, a beautiful silver belt buckle; William Hardie, a handsome pair of gold cuff buttons. Second—Mrs. Thomas J. Dodd, a pretty brooch. Nelson Larsen, a stickpin. The capable committee in charge comprised Mrs. D. J. Shaban, Mrs. D. T. Shaban, Mrs. Lawrence Riley, Mrs. R. M. Powers, Miss May Burns and Miss B. Enright.

GRAND ARMY.

Reports were received Friday night at the weekly meeting of Sedgewick post, No. 1, at the Buckingham Memorial hall, that the posts from West-erly would be here Saturday night, accepting the invitation to attend the opening camp fire of the season given by Sedgewick. About 20 men are expected from each post. The camp fire plans are to make it a general social evening without any specially set program. Quartermaster Sergeant Stocking guarantees satisfactory service from the commissary department, when he puts the supper on the table at 7 o'clock, and from then on the veterans and their friends of the Citizens' corps are expected to find the pass quickly. Recently a number of new members have been added to the Citizens' corps, and it is expected that some of these will be called on for their maiden speeches before a Sedgewick post camp fire.

Connecticut Patents.

The list of patents granted in Connecticut on the 9th day of November, as furnished from the office of F. H. Allen, follows:
S. D. Bear, Shelton, automatic button; W. H. Bristol, Waterbury, pen indicating or recording device; C. B. Dumond, Waterbury, curtain bracket; E. E. Starnes, Shelton, regulating initial strains in rolling structural material; F. Hoerle, Plainville, electric switch; F. H. Hotchkiss, Shelton, die; H. E. Lester, Hartford, automatic screw machine; J. B. Livingston, New Haven, percolator; R. Loomis, Hartford, apparatus for manufacturing gas; H. Noble, Stamford, wash lock.

Commissioner Edwards has taken a sensible step in providing his white wings from masks to protect them from the dust they raise. He may now exercise his ingenuity in devising some improvement in their manner of sweeping and dumping the dust that shall protect the public which swallows most of it.—New York Sun.
